

the S P R I N G 2 0 1 4
NEW ENGLAND REGIONAL
WORLD HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION

QUARTERLY NEWS BULLETIN

Spring Symposium
2014

“Maritime Civilizations in World History”

Southern Maine Community College, South Portland, Maine
5 April 2014

We are pleased to welcome
Lincoln Paine, author of *The Sea
and Civilization: A Maritime History
of the World*, as the keynote speaker.

President's Message

2014 promises to be another
exciting year for world history
in New England. The upcoming symposium in South Portland, Maine (details above and on the
NERWHA website, nerwha.org.
Please join us!

I also would like to highlight the benefits of joining NERWHA.
Membership offers you the opportunity to advance your research in world history, and to promote the teaching and learning of world history
throughout the New England area. New in 2014, a NERWHA

membership also will provide you access to a 'members-only'
page available on our website.
Here, you will be able to access select papers and presentations
from previous symposia, as well
as book reviews from our
current members,
Michele Louro
President, NERWHA

✧ Announcements ✧

Welcome to the first NERWHA News Bulletin. As a service to our members, we will provide information on Upcoming Conferences, Recent Publications of Interest and Resources That You Might Have Missed. Tom Rushford, our webmaster, and I plan to provide NERWHA members with updates of interest. Please forward any items that you wish to be added for future consideration. Thanks, Jim Diskant, Vice President

EMAIL SUGGESTIONS TO: newenglandwha@gmail.com.

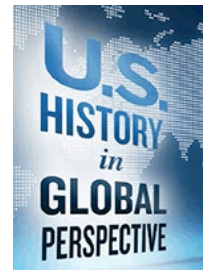

RECENT PUBLICATIONS

Lincoln Paine, The Sea and Civilization: A Maritime History of the World (New York: Alfred A.
Knopf, 2013) is out: Sea and Civilization: Doubleday.

Whitney Howarth, [U.S.
History in Global Perspective](#).

The inspiration for this book came from a recent survey of National History Day's (NHD)
network of thousands of teachers in the US as well as those
in DoD
and International
Schools from across the globe.

Members at Recent Conferences

On Wednesday, October 16th, Michele Louro, gave the opening talk at Primary Source's Workshop, Early European Imperialism in East and Southeast Asia, entitled "Overview of Early European Imperialism in East and Southeast Asia" and Jim Diskant facilitated a workshop in the afternoon, "Responses to Imperialism in East and Southeast Asia: A Jigsaw Activity".

On October 4th Jeremy Greene presented at the New England History Teachers' Association's fall meeting in Storrs, Connecticut: "Stories are What we Live in: Collecting, Analyzing, and Using Oral Narratives of the 1960s".

MAYBE MISSED

New England Historical Association
www.newenglandhistorians.org

Check the New England History Teachers' Association for upcoming events: nehta.unique-unconference-opportunity

Check the Primary Source web site for upcoming conferences, publications, and more: www.primarysource.org

WHA 23rd Annual WHA Conference in Costa Rica, July 2014

The conference themes include "Latin America in World History" and "The Environment in World History." Please consider joining us in Costa Rica.

If you are interested in participating on a NERWHA-sponsored panel or roundtable, please email us at newenglandwha@gmail.com.

See The WHA 23rd Annual Conference 2014 for more information.

EFTI

The 2014 Educators for Teaching India conference theme will be Women in India: Negotiating Tradition and Modernity. This year's conference will examine the status of women in India through multiple lenses: religion, history, politics and current events. EFTI is proud to announce that this year's keynote speaker will be Harleen Singh, author of the forthcoming The Public Life of Lakshmi Bai, Rani of Jhansi: Gender, History, and Fable in India Registration and conference information can be found on our website: TeachingIndia.org

