

NEW ENGLAND REGIONAL WORLD HISTORY ASSOCIATION (NERWHA)

Fall 2022 Hybrid Symposium

Empires in World History

17 September 2022, 909 Renaissance Park Building, 1135 Tremont St., Northeastern University and via Zoom

8:15-9:00 Registration (pick up your badge) and Continental Breakfast

9:00-9:15 Welcome and Introduction of the Keynote Speaker, David Kalivas, NERWHA President

9:15-10:30 Keynote Address, Heather Streets-Salter, Northeastern University, “Empire, Anti-colonialism, and Communism”

10:30-10:45 Refreshment Break

10:45-12:15 Panel 1, Legacies of Empire and Colonization: The Role Education Can Play in Creating Greater Awareness

David Kalivas, Emeritus, Middlesex Community College, Chair

Christoph Strobel, University of Massachusetts at Lowell, “Statues, Seals, and Other Ways We Distort the Past in New England”

Scott C. Spencer, Winchester High School, “The Winchester Mascot Change: Student-Teacher Collaboration in Fostering Better Indigenous Representation and Historical Awareness”

Deirdre Hutchison, University of Massachusetts at Lowell, “What Remains? Challenging Past and Historic Signage”

Bridget Keown, University of Pittsburgh, “The Vast Chaos of Facts,” Teaching Modern Science via Imperial History” (via Zoom)

12:15-1:30 Lunch on Own (A list of nearby restaurants and fast-food places is available at the registration desk.)

OVER

1:30-2:45 Panel 2, The Legacies of Empire in Morocco and the Philippines

Paul Jentz, Emeritus, Hennepin Community College (Minnesota), Chair

Patrick Young, University of Massachusetts at Lowell, “Trans-Colonial Childhoods: The Colonies de Vacances in French North Africa”

Mesrob Vartavarian, Harvard University, “Postcolonial Legacies of American Counterinsurgencies in the Philippines”

2:45-3:00 Free raffle for in-person participants of Destroying to Replace: Settler Genocides of Indigenous Peoples by Mohamed Adhikari (courtesy of Hackett Publishing Company)

Concluding Remarks, David Kalivas